DUI suspect charged following Monday crash
Two passengers, one 10 years old, treated for minor injuries

By BEN HYATT, NEWS WRITER

A father now faces charges after wrecking his car allegedly due to driving under the influence.

Johnny Neace, 45, was taken into custody by Harrison County Sheriff's Deputy Nathan Gasser at Harrison

Memorial Hospital after he allegedly drove while intoxicated with his 10 year-old daughter in the car.

According to the Harrison County Sheriff's report, the injury accident was reported Monday, April 16, on US 27 N around 9:24 p.m.

"Mr. Neace was headed south on US 27 with his 10-year-old daughter and his uncle," said Gasser. "Bradley Copes was also traveling south on a Kubota tractor with a round bale of hay on the back."

Gasser said Copes had activated the hazard lights while traveling and had taken all the necessary precautions while driving on the road.

"Mr. Neace failed to see the tractor in front of him and, as a result, struck the tractor in the rear before stopping," said Gasser.

Deputies investigate jewelry heist

By BEN HYATT, NEWS WRITER

The Harrison County Sheriff's Department is still investigating a substantial jewelry theft at a residence on A. Keller Lane.

According to a report filed by the Harrison County Sheriff's Department, Debra Ammerman, resident of A Keller Lane, reported a burglary at her residence on Sunday, April 15, at 2:17 a.m.

"Deputy Chris Shields responded to the call made by Mrs. Ammerman," said Det. Paul Olin. "The victim informed him that several pieces of jewelry had been taken from her jewelry box a few days prior to reporting."

Olin said the estimated value of the jewelry is still not known but is to be believed to be more than $10,000.

"Through talking with Mrs.

Ammerman we were successful in tracking down some of the stolen property and recovering it," said Olin. "We also have an idea where the remaining items might be but are still waiting to confirm that information."

Olin said the investigation is still ongoing and criminal charges will be filed upon conclusion of the investigation.

Substation hit again by copper thieves

By BEN HYATT, NEWS WRITER

A second wire theft has been reported at a KU substation located on Smith Martin Lane.

The ground copper wiring theft was reported on Wednesday, April 11, by Kentucky Utilities representative Travis Jones.

"This is the second copper theft I have investigated at a substation in the past week. The first one occurred at the substation located on KY 356," said Harrison County Sheriff's Deputy Tuan Kreer. "If people keep going into these substations, we are eventually going to get a call about a dead body."

Kreer said the time of the theft is still unknown because the substations are only checked periodically.

"During this theft, the persons involved removed almost 200 feet of copper ground wire from the substation," said Kreer. "The estimated damaged caused by the theft is said too be around $4,000."

Kreer said due to the theft committed on KU property, all substations will be checked and evaluated for other copper thefts.

"I can't understand why someone would take the chance to break into a substation," said Kreer. "The danger that these people are putting themselves in is beyond belief. In the end, I see someone getting hurt."

Because of the copper thefts, KU personnel are pushed for time make repairs to the damages.

"With those ground rods out, the substation is vulnerable to any lightning damage, which in the end, could cause serious and expensive damage to the station," said Kreer.

Kreer said the estimated street value of the copper is between $100 and $125.

"The sad crazy part is these people are risking their lives for $100," said Kreer. "That's too much of a risk for that kind of money."

Getting back to the garden

When we first moved to Florida, our oldest daughter was 14 and not happy about the move.

Being 14, she cried. A lot.

One of her many places of tears was Sunken Gardens, the old Florida attraction in St. Petersburg. It's supposedly the oldest commercial tourist attraction on Florida's west coast and one of the first botanical gardens in the U.S.

In 1903, George Turner, Sr., a plumber and avid gardener, bought the site, which included a shallow lake, 10 feet below sea level. He drained it and planted a "sunken" garden.

In the 1920s he opened a nursery and sold produce and flowers, and people paid him a nickel to let them take a stroll among his garden.

Nancy Kennedy

GRACE NOTES

Hat sparked an idea and in 1935 he put a fence around the place and charged 25 cents admission.

In the 1950s through 1970s it was rated in the top 10 among Florida's commercial attractions, but then fell into disrepair until the city of St. Petersburg took it over in 1999 and fixed it up. Now there are more than 50,000 tropical plants and flowers and all kinds of butterflies and waterfalls.

We were there around

1991 or '92 when it was rundown and pretty tacky. Alison cried and we haven't been back.

Every so often when my husband and I go to the beach in the St. Pete area, we'll pass Sunken Gardens and one of us will say, "We've got to go back there one day." So far, we haven't.

But we want to.

We want to go back to the garden — the Garden.

Years ago, Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young sang a Joni Mitchell song that talked about getting back to the garden. It was about Woodstock and "joining in a rock 'n' roll band," but it also hit on something more intrinsic to our human nature, namely a yearning to return to our intended state.

The end of the song says, "We are stardust, we are golden, we are caught in the devil's bargain, and we've got to get ourselves back to the garden."

As theology goes, that's half correct.

We are golden. We were created in God's image, the product of his love and longing, to be reflections of him.

When God placed the first humans in his perfect, fertile garden at the headwaters of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers he breathed life into them and said, "It is very good."

No tacky souvenir shop in Eden. Just beauty and innocence and naked communion with each other and with God.

That's who we once were — golden.

Then we got "caught in the devil's bargain," or something like that. The Bible says that the devil was once golden as well until he rebelled against

God and took legions of angels with him. God cursed him and cast him to earth until the day he's bound and thrown into an eternal fire.

He has hated and still hates God and hates what God cherishes, which is us. And in our weakness, we chose to follow the cursed one, which caused us to be evicted from Eden.

The song goes on to say, "We've got to get ourselves back to the garden."

Yes, we've got to get back there — we want to get back there. That's the inner drive that makes us do everything we do, the drive to quiet our inner turmoil and our lack of peace. There's a Garden-void we are all trying to fill.

But we cannot get ourselves back there. Instead, it's Jesus who left heaven to come and bring us to the garden and to God himself.

The night before he died, Jesus was in another garden, agonizing over what was about to happen to him. But for the "joy set before him," the Bible says, he endured the cross.

That joy was having us and him all together one day in a garden paradise, the river of the water of life running through it, with the tree of life on either side of the river yielding its fruit for all of us to eat (Revelation 22:1-2).

A garden where no one will cry.

Singers

Singers' second soprano Sally Levi said the concert will feature tunes from the 1950s and 60s.

"I remember some of the songs," said Levi. "They're songs we all, Baby Boomers, grew up listening to."

Levi is part of a trio with Anna Leith and Layne McIlvain. Their selection will be Dream a Little Dream.

Other songs in the Singers' line up include Little Darlin', At the Hop, Run Around Sue and Little Ol' Lady from Pasadena. Also, expect a little Shake Rattle and Roll with four hands on the piano from Bill Probus and Dr. Beth Laytart.

The concert is expected to last about an hour.

On Sunday there will be a special performance from Five by Tuesday, which is an a cappella group led by Cynthiana's Nathan Herrington.

Tickets are $7 and are available at Biancke's and at the door. Admission for children 10 and under is free.

Crash

Gasser said when he and Deputy Nathan Olin arrived, a strong odor of alcohol could be smelled from the car driven by Neace.

"I approached the vehicle and saw Mr. Neace behind the wheel," said Gasser. "He had slurred speech and I saw an opened half gallon vodka bottle in the floor board of the truck."

Gasser said Copes sustained no injuries due to the wreck, however, Neace and the other two passengers were transported to Harrison Memorial Hospital by Brown's EMS to be treated for minor injuries.

"I followed the ambulance to the hospital to check on the three individuals," said Gasser. "The little girl and the two adults were treated and released later that night with no life threatening injuries."

Gasser arrested and charged Neace with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence and second degree wanton endangerment.

Neace was booked and lodged in Bourbon County Detention Center.

Neace's bail is set for $1,000.

Kentucky Governor Steve Beshear and First Lady Jane Beshear were guests at the 4075 Veterans of Foreign Wars Post in Frankfort on Thursday, April 12, for the governor's signing of a bills in support of Kentucky's veterans. At the signing were Zack Northcutt, Mrs. Beshear, state Rep. Tom McKee, Gov. Beshear and Charles Northcutt, life member of the 4075th VFW post. Northcutt served two tours in Vietnam. # It's a busy spring in our fair city

If you find yourself saying “There’s nothing to do” in Cynthiana over the next few weeks, it’s your own fault.

Becky Barnes
Editor

I find myself wondering how or if I’ll get it all in.

This weekend, The Licking Valley Singers will have two spring performances with a stroll down the rock’n roll memory lane.

It’ll be the Beach Boys meeting Grease and Happy Days all rolled into one with some of the best of the oldies music.

There will be a Friday night performance at 7:30 p.m. and a Sunday matinee at 2:30, all at the Cynthiana Baptist Church.

The Singers are again directed by the multi-talented Karen Bear with accompaniment by accomplished pianist Dr. Beth Laytart.

This concert is a must-see.

Also this weekend will be the 10th and sadly the last Raggedy Ann Festival.

The event has been moved this year to Flat Run Veterans’ Park.

Now, if someone wants to take over the planning and organizing of the festival, chairman Juanita Ingram will happily turn over the reins. However, as with many events, the same people find themselves doing all the work.

Ingram said last week that the festival had run its course.

It’s had a good run. Don’t miss it. On the Hilltop, the Fence of Fame inductees will be honored at the Thorobreds’ baseball game.

Former Breds’ standouts, Kylie Vaughn, Lee Kendall and Mark Clifford will be honored.

Follow Friday night’s activities with a early Saturday morning run in the Chamber of Commerce’s Earth Day 5K at 9 a.m. at the Cynthiana-Harrison County Airport. The 5K will be preceded by a one-mile children’s walk. Registration begins at 7:30 for both events.

And, if you have upperclassmen at Harrison County High School, this will also be prom weekend! Or perhaps you have a Little Leaguer who will be involved in opening day at River Road Park.

With all that on the calendar, it’s hard to believe that next weekend is looking equally as event-packed.

Next weekend will open with the harriCYN Community Theatre’s spring production of Lost in Yonkers. Thursday will be student night at the Rohs’ 7 p.m. performance. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased at the Rohs office on Pike Street.

Tickets for the rest of the weekend performances are $10 and are available at Biancke’s. Friday and Saturday shows are also at 7 p.m. Sunday’s matinee is at 2 p.m.

Before the shows, plan to attend the 9th annual Cynthiana Democrat Home and Garden Show at the Burley Co-op Marketing Center on U.S. 27 North.

This event has grown each year with hundreds of visitors exploring the 60 vendors booths.

There is something for everyone. There will be inflatables for the children, food for all, flowers, trees, shrubs, cooking supplies and utensils, decals, furniture and more flowers.

The event begins on Saturday morning at 9 a.m. and continues to 5 p.m.

On Sunday, the hours are 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Don’t forget to bring a non-perishable food item for the Harrison County Food Pantry.

Each of these events is worthy of all our support. People have been working diligently behind the scenes to make sure they are the best and that we all enjoy our experiences.

For all those involved, I applaud you and thank you for your hard work.

New chef heads up Krubaloo's at Cynthiana Country Club

By BECKY BARNES, Editor

When Chef Clayton Lesak decided to leave the Mitchell's Fish Market in Newport, he wasn't looking for "just another job." He was looking for "the right fit."

And, as the new chef at Krubaloo's at the Cynthiana Country Club, Lesak believes he's found that "fit."

Chef Clayton, 31, was formally trained at Keiser University's Culinary Arts School in Sarasota, Fla. "I learned the fundamentals in culinary schools, but learned to cook working in restaurants," Lesak said.

After leaving Keiser University, he worked at a green restaurant in Chattanooga, Tenn. The restaurant was environmentally friendly and utilized fresh, local ingredients and partnered with the local agriculture community in an effort to serve sustainable foods, Lesak said.

"It's something I'm interested in and I hope the community can support me in that here," he said of his long-term goal for his Krubaloo's restaurant at the Cynthiana Country Club. He has met with Farmers' Market suppliers in four counties and is anxious to be involved.

He and his wife Wende are also interested in raising some of their crops at their Antioch home.

After Lesak left the Chattanooga restaurant, he started with the Fish Market located at Newport on the Levee. He also worked for the Mitchell's Cleveland Fish Market before landing in Cynthiana.

Lesak has plans for his latest endeavor.

"This is an opportunity for me to be an entrepreneur, something I've always been passionate about," Lesak said.

While the country club remains private, Lesak is opening some opportunities for public dining.

A Sunday brunch has been open to the public in recent years and will continue. He will also be offering some carry-out items from his 19th Hole menu beginning May 15.

This menu is geared toward a lunch and pool crowd with wraps, salads and sandwiches.

The country club is also open for banquets and catering events like weddings, anniversaries, bridal and baby showers and birthdays.

In addition to being the chef at Krubaloo's Dining Room and 19th Hole, raising farm-fresh products and sharing four children (Hunter, 12, Brody, 9, Mallory, 4, and Kruer, 1), soon to be five, with wife Wende, Lesak is also teaching culinary arts at Maysville Community College in Maysville and some off-site classes.

This weekend, the dining room will be open for students who will be attending the prom. A buffet-style dinner will be served between 5 and 9 p.m. and will include chicken bow tie alfredo, prime rib with au jus, sauteed broccoli, asparagus, baked potatoes, salad and browning a-la-mode. The $22 per person will get diners all they can eat.

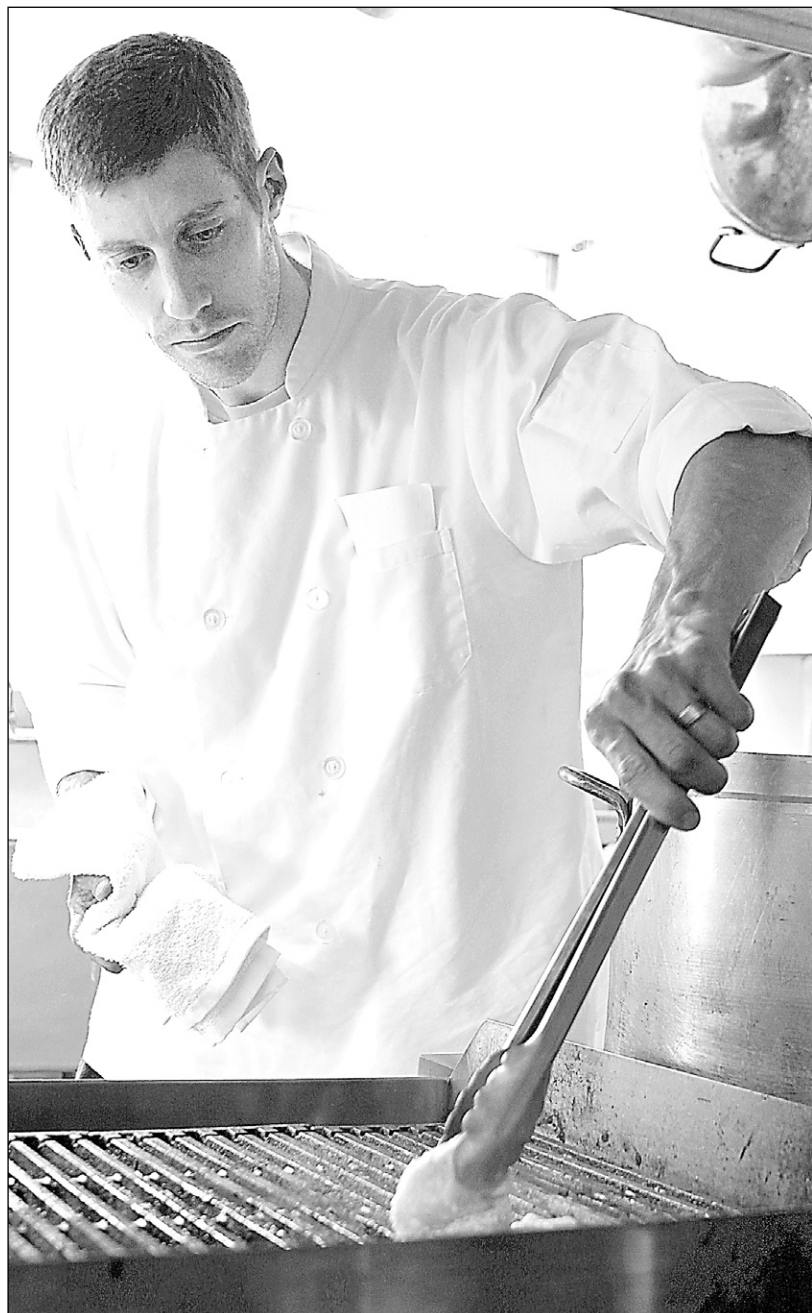

Reservations are preferred and may be made by calling Lesak at 1-931-797-0812.

Another event open to the public will be a Derby Party on May 5. Call for more details.

Until May 15 when lunching and dining will begin in earnest, Lesak has limited hours at Krubaloo's.

He is currently open on Wednesdays from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and on Fridays and Saturdays for lunch from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and evening dining from 5-8 p.m.

Beginning in mid-May, the upstairs dining room will be open Wednesday through Saturday for lunch and dinner and Sunday brunch. The 19th Hole will be open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Community baby shower is Tuesday

The second annual Harrison County Community Baby Shower will be held on April 24. The event will be held from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Westside Elementary. A community baby shower is an event for expectant parents and for parents of children from birth to 3 years old.

Registration begins at 4:30 p.m. with the speaker to address attendees between 4:45 and 5:15 p.m. There will be booths open and refreshments served between 5:15 and 5:45 p.m. and a drawing for prizes from 5:45 to 6 p.m. Those registering for prizes must be present to win door prizes and must be registered by 4:45 to be eligible for door prizes.

Decorators' Showcase to benefit local ombudsman agency

The Nursing Home Ombudsman Agency (NHOA) of the Bluegrass, which includes Harrison County, will hold the 23rd Decorators' Showcase at Highland Hall, a historic, privately owned home in Lexington. The house, located at 6208 Old Richmond Road, is one of the original Shelby Houses of Fayette County.

Many talented interior and exterior designers will decorate each room and the exterior of the home. Public tours will be available Wednesday - Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday from 12 to 4 p.m. The house will be closed on Mondays, Tuesdays and Sunday, May 27. Lunch is $10 (Wednesday - Saturday: 11 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.) Lunch reservations are recommended for all; reservations are required for groups of six or more.

For info, to purchase tickets, to reserve lunch, or to book a group: call 859-277-9215, visit www.decsowcase.com, or email decoratorsshowcase2012@gmail.com

All proceeds from the Decorators' Showcase will benefit NHOA, an independent, non-profit agency that provides certified ombudsmen for all long-term care residents in the Bluegrass area. For more information about NHOA, call (859) 277-9215, email at nhoa@ombuddy.org or visit www.ombuddy.org.

Ephesians 3: 1-10

God chose many people to speak and write for him to mankind. Every generation of Christians are to take the Gospel to those who have never heard it. Salvation of Jesus Christ is the most important gift that God gave through Jesus Christ to man. Every Christian should do all he or she can to take the Gospel to everyone on this earth. In John 2: 1-2, he writes, "My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world."

reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace which was given to me for you; that by revelation there was made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before in brief. By referring to this, when you read you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; to be specific, that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of God's grace which was given to me according to the working of His power. To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to bring to light what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God who created all things; so that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places." Acts 2: 38 tells us that everyone who becomes a Christian receives the Holy Spirit; the same Holy Spirit the apostles received. Please read Romans chapters 6, 7, and 8. where we are told to walk by the Spirit. That requires us to study and be diligent to be approved by God. This is for all Christians. Jesus died for everyone who will believe and obey him. All My Love, George R. Marsh, Elder Salem Church of Christ

Curves’ food drive brings in 1,307 pounds for local Food Pantry

Curves of Cynthiana announced that the 2012 14th annual food drive brought in 1,307 pounds of nonperishable food items, which will benefit the Cynthiana-Harrison County Food Bank.

Worldwide, Curves members have donated more than 66 million pounds of food since 2004.

Kara Godman, Cynthiana Curves manager said, “Our members have generous hearts. So, it’s no surprise to me that they rallied behind the food drive.” She added, “We set a goal of collecting 1,200 pounds of food and we exceeded that goal. I am really proud of our ladies.”

But the food donations were’n’t just from the Cynthiana Curves members. Non-members also brought in bags of groceries in exchange for an opportunity to join Curves with a waived service fee.

Last month’s Food Drive accounted for 12 new memberships at the Cynthiana Curves.

“Curves and our members are delighted to help our community,” said Godman. “The food drive is an excellent program that fits perfectly with the Curves philosophy: Promoting the health of the whole woman. The opportunity for our members to give back to the Cynthiana community promotes the spirit of giving.”

On-farm investments available to farmers

The Kentucky Agricultural Development Board, chaired by Gov. Steve Beshear, recently awarded $40,000 in Harrison County Agricultural Development Funds for a County Agricultural Investment Program (CAIP).

The Harrison County Beef Cattle Association submitted a proposal to the Harrison County Agricultural Development Council and the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board to provide cost-share incentives to area farmers.

CAIP is designed to provide farmers with incentives to allow them to improve and diversify their current production practices. CAIP combines what were previously known as county model cost-share programs into one, where each model program becomes an investment area.

CAIP covers a wide variety of agricultural enterprises in its 11 investment areas, including commercial production of aquaculture; bees and honey; equine; forage; fruit; livestock; mushrooms; ornamental horticulture; poultry; rabbits; timber; and vegetables, as well as agritourism business development; commercial kitchen construction or conversion; energy efficiency/production; and on-farm water enhancement.

For more information about the sign-up period and the complete guidelines for this program in Harrison County, contact Mike Malone with the cattle association at 859-234-5510 or email gcarter@uky.edu.

Women's Health Issues seminar planned

This year marks the 17th annual Women's Health Issues seminar, which will be held Monday, April 30.

Each year the objective of the program is to try to educate women on a variety of health topics and preventative measures.

Programs vary each year to meet the specific needs of the women of Harrison County. The planning committee uses the previous year's evaluations and suggestions of the committee members in making choices of speakers and topics.

Many rural communities may find it challenging to keep the community informed of health issues and the importance of having annual exams.

This is an opportunity to hear the latest research information on topics without having to leave the community. This is why the following Harrison County organizations formed a Community Coalition: Cynthiana-Harrison County Public Library, Harrison County Extension Office, Community Action Council, Harrison Memorial Hospital, Harrison County Community Education Center, Hospice of the Bluegrass, Harrison County Homemakers, Cedar Ridge Health Campus, WEDCO District Health Department, and the Housing Authority of Cynthiana.

The coalition receives financial support to help keep cost low.

This year the seminar is free and a meal will be provided free of charge to the first 100 registered participants.

Tickets are required and can be picked up at the Cynthiana-Harrison County Public Library or the Harrison County Extension Office. If you cannot come for the entire program, just come for a portion of the program to hear about the topic you are interested in.

Many times, speakers are new doctors in the community and the seminar is their first chance to meet members of the community.

Participants are more likely to seek doctors out for a follow-up appointment if they get the opportunity to meet them beforehand.

We do not include health screenings in our program as other counties may because it falls so closely to the Community Health Fair where a much more extensive array of tests and screenings are offered.

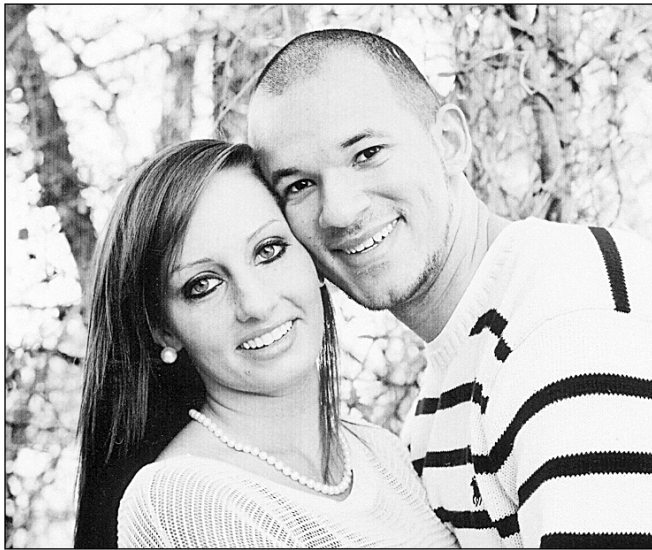

The first speaker of the evening will be Luis Pena, M.D.,-HMH gastroenterologist who will be speaking on the topic of "The Importance of Colon Cancer Screenings". Dr. Peña will be followed by Jara Bauer, R.D., C.D.E.; HMH Dietitian will be speaking about "Ways to Improve or Maintain Your Weight."

To round out the evening Kelli Mulberry, C.P.A., J.D. will be addressing the topic "Women and Finances."

Harrison County Women's Health Issues Seminar will take place Monday, April 30, with doors opening for registration starting at 5 p.m. at the Cynthiana Christian Church located at 202 N. Main St.

For more information about the Women's Health Issues Seminar, contact the Harrison County Extension Office at 234-5510 or one the other agencies listed above.

KRYSTIN L. SMITH AND BRANDON J. CUTWRIGHT

Smith is the daughter of Laura (Robinson) Stanfield and Matthew (Christine) Smith and the granddaughter of Catherine Robinson.

The wedding will take place Jan. 12, 2013 at the Prizing House. Formal invitations to be sent at a future date.

Abdallah Road (behind Movie Warehouse), will be holding a grand opening Saturday.

The Flower Depot is now open for business. Owner/operator is Cherity Christopher and is located at 215 E. Pike St.

25 YEARS AGO . . .

Births announced this week are: Jacqueline Dawn Holland, Feb. 26, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Lee Holland; Shanda Rhea Techau, April 9, daughter of Joel and Nancy Techau; Jeremy Denver Hamm, April 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamm Jr.

Harrison County High School band members and parents return from Orlando, Fla. with a first place trophy. Band director is Robert Gregg.

Door-to-door garbage pick-up will begin in August for county residents.

50 YEARS AGO . . .

Births announced this week are: Jody Lee Beagle, April 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beagle; James Lee Johnson, April 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson; Tracey Janelle McDole, April 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDole; Charles Allen Withers, April 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Withers; Anita Kay Perraut, April 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perraut; William Thompson Jones III, April 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Jones II; Stacey L. Whitaker, April 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Whitaker; James Daniel Curtis, April 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Curtis; Jeanne Marie Box, April 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larkie Box; Julie Ann Martin, April 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin.

The M. Goldberg and Son store, Pike Street, has been newly remodeled and redecorated for more pleasant and efficient service. Included in the remodeling program are new display fixtures, paint, and light fixtures.

Donations to the Harrison County Fire Department edge near the $10,000 mark as Harrison Countians continue to contribute toward fire protection.

Oddville Homemakers Club to end year in May

Oddville Homemakers have had an exciting past year which will end in May and begin again in September. New members are welcome. Some of the lessons have been on Social Networking, Self Defense, Consumer Beware, Couponing, Healthy Meals on a Budget, Growing and Cooking with Herbs and emailing photos.

The group is also involved in special interest activities which include: Homemaker Day at the courthouse, food booths and exhibits, cultural arts contest, Little Feet Big Feet, blood drives, nursing home tea parties, Community Health Fair, Cancer Coalition and many more.

The homemakers have a winter and spring day trip, as well as a week long trip each year. This year the group will be going to New York. If interested in getting involved in a Homemaker Club and participating in activities and programs, call the Harrison County Extension Office at 234-5510 or email ccase@uky.edu.

There are 13 Homemaker clubs in Harrison County. Cost to join is $7 a year and it includes a monthly newsletter with information on all the activities.

Meet the people serving you at the Harrison County Farmers Market

The spring fever is here and the gardens are starting to produce the finest vegetables and fruits available at farmers' market. This year proves to be an extra exciting one as more farmers and crafts persons have joined the market.

This year at the market you can shop from the following hometown folks that we would like to introduce to you:

Peacock Gardens located in Bourbon County is owned and operated by husband and wife team of Charles and Barbara Puckett. They have some amazing selections of irises to choose from. They also sell a mixed variety of fresh vegetables and flowering annuals.

Barbara says she has found so many folks at the market that love and enjoy seeing the blooming irises as much as she does. The friendships that you make at the market are just as important as the ties that we have with our families. As with many of the farmers and producers in the area, Barbara and Charles are assisted by their daughters and their families in this adventure.

Kelat Farm is locally owned and operated by Mark and Kathy Auxier. Mark says he is excited about selling at the market with this being his first year and gaining experience to later retire from his job in Georgetown. Kathy explains that she left a part time position to devote more time to growing vegetables and farming.

Vickie Fryman
Guest columnist

They have been growing vegetables for many years but only until recently decided to sell at the market. She says that if you need garlic, they have you covered. Mark and Kathy are fairly new to Harrison County after relocating from Bourbon County just three years ago.

Alice Jacobs is well known in the area as a crafter. If you enjoy looking at the lovely Barn Quilts through the county and really would like to have one of your own, then see Jacobs. She tells us that she has many patterns to choose from and she is happy to make your quilt in the size that best suits your needs. She has painted some patterns for folks as far away as Michigan, Florida and even Indiana. Hand crafted jewelry is also available at the market from Jacobs. She has been designing beadwork for quite a while and she says she enjoys making pretty things. Stop by and visit with her and ask her about the other crafts that she creates. You will be amazed at the talent found at the market.

Stone Hedge Farms is located outside of Claysville with Mary and Tait Strand at the helm. Mary and Tait also have family support from Mary's parents, Rick and Vicki Dennis. They assist with the farming and other aspects of the family business. Stone Hedge Farms has been growing great fruits such as blackberries, raspberries and blueberries for a few years and now they too have a great selection of vegetables.

Mary and Vicki also make homemade soaps and jams that are sold at the market and at craft and trade shows in the area. The soaps and jams are top quality products that really appeal to the eye and the taste buds. Of course a family farm won't be complete without baked goods. Rick really knows his way around in the kitchen when it comes to muffins. Come to the market and try them for yourself.

Fryman Farm is located in Bourbon County with Gary and Vickie Fryman being the owners and operators. Fryman Farm has been around since 1961 and now grows vegetables and grain corn instead of tobacco.

After years of growing fine vegetables for the family and always giving extra to neighbors they were told to try the farmers' market. That actually began the start of something new, adventurous and a proven way to bring in income.

Now after three years Fryman Farm is selling at two farmers' markets, farm direct, sales through CSAs and through Paris-Bourbon County farmers' market and to catering businesses.

This year Fryman started a pilot program in Bourbon County Schools for special needs students so that the kids could come out to the farm and work with seeds and plants to harvesting the produce that they help grow. This program will help teach the special needs kids how to become more involved in growing their own food.

Educational meeting for Phase I program schedule is April 30

By GARY CARTER, Co. EXT. AGENT

The Harrison County Ag Development Board announces the schedule for the 2012 Phase I program. Harrison County has been approved to start and will hold the educational meeting on Monday, April 30 at the Harrison County Extension Office at 7:30 p.m.

The educational meeting will be for anyone applying for the program in 2012. We will discuss the changes from previous years along with passing out 2012 applications. The sign up period will end on Monday, May 14 at the end of business hours. On May 15 we will score all applications and determine the order in which you will be approved.

Our county has received $40,000 to get started with in 2012. We anticipate an additional $300,000 in May to expand the county program. If you do not get an acceptance letter do not give up. Once we have additional funds available we will announce additional approvals.

All applications and scoring methods have been determined by the Governor's Office of Ag Policy in Frankfort. The local board serves only as the contact for the process to occur. All scoring will be based on the answers and point system created by Frankfort.

In conclusion, you will be able to check your score on the application after May 15. The allocation of funds in 2012 is $3,000 per producer on a 50/50 cost share. If you have any additional questions call our office at 234-5510 for more details.

No-till philosophy easy on the soil

One of the most anticipated rites of spring is dusting off the tiller and heading out to the vegetable garden for a little soil play.

It is one of those things you can't plan for, though. It becomes a waiting game because we can't do it if the soil is too wet; we don't want to do it if it is too cold and we only have the time to do it when the weekend rolls around.

Well, what would you say if I told you that you were off the hook when it comes to spring tilling?

Tilling has become passé, which will likely be hard for some gardeners to swallow. Sure, it makes people happy to see a clean, freshly tilled garden, ready to receive seeds and seedlings, anticipating a bountiful harvest.

Jeneen Wiche
Columnist

ful harvest.

The truth is too much tilling is bad for the soil. Soil is not just dirt; it is a living organism and the more we disturb it the less alive it becomes.

Tilling the soil allows us to seed or plant the garden more easily; it also allows the developing roots to extend freely through the soil but this is short-lived because once rain visits the plot the pulverized soil becomes a smooth crust.

Soil scientist, Lois Braun explains, "Both air and water should easily infiltrate these pores for healthy root growth and for a healthy soil microbial life. Tillage pulverizes larger clumps of soil ("aggregates") into a fine powder which is easily washed by the next rain down into the soil's pores, clogging them up." It's like bread that won't raise or smooth versus chunky peanut butter.

Put this way, it makes a great deal of sense. We all know how important oxygen, moisture and drainage is for plant health so larger aggregate clumps of soil are ideal over finely tilled "powder" that more easily erodes or becomes compacted under foot or spring rains.

The most important part of soil structure is organic matter. Organic matter slowly decomposes (tilling speeds up the decomposition) and as it does it feeds our plants at a rate that matches the plants ability to uptake the nutrients; not to mention other living organisms that are in the soil that become displaced in tilled soil and may not be able to recover and function at their new depth. From earthworms to beneficial nematodes, an intricate system of life lies beneath the soil's surface.

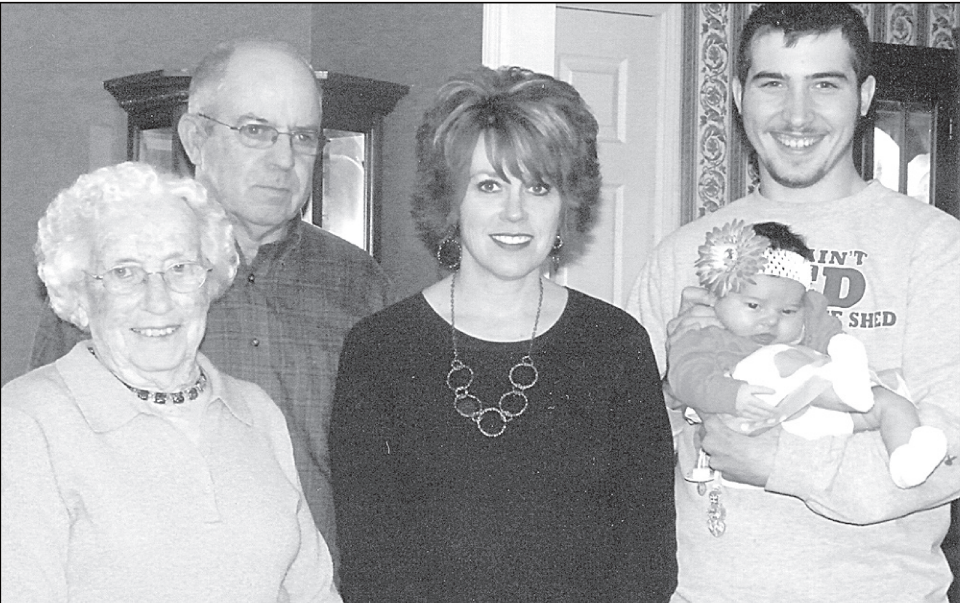

There are times to till, however, and many gardeners are probably forced to do so more often than not because they have been left with mechanically compacted subsoil that a jackhammer can't crack.

Compacted soil does indeed need to be tilled but for the long-term improvement of the area you must also add lots of organic matter.

For gardeners that have good soil structure try no-till this year and see what happens. Use your spade, garden fork or cultivator to loosen the soil at planting then you can add organic matter as mulch or newspaper covered in grass-clipping or compost to control weeds thus eliminating tillage as a weed-control measure.

I have my eye on a new location for planting next spring and I plan on preparing the site now by depositing the results of cleaning the chicken coop... A few loads this year will result in composted manure by next spring that I can easily "flip" into the soil when I am ready to plant.

Kentucky Life team visits in Franklin, Fredonia and Burnside

Kentucky Life, host Dave Shuffett joins a team of ghost hunters during an eerie stop at Octagon Hall in Franklin, which many believe is one of the most haunted sites in America. The program also visits the Wilson-Blair African American One Room Schoolhouse and Museum in Caldwell County; explores the cliffs above Lake Cumberland in Burnside; and more. The program airs Saturday, April 28 and Sunday, April 29 on KET.

In Franklin in Simpson County, an aptly named eight-sided mansion with an abundance of Civil War history and a growing notoriety among aficionados of the paranormal. The house is considered one of the most haunted places in the United States and is frequented by celebrity ghost hunters. Shuffett discovers that the house's rumored "presences" weren't shy about making themselves known.

In the tiny town of Fredonia in Caldwell County, lessons are still being learned at the Wilson-Blair African American One Room School and Museum, which has been preserved through the efforts of some dedicated volunteers.

The program also visits Eagles View Bed and Breakfast in Burnside, a lodge perched above the cliffs of Lake Cumberland that has the look of a hunting lodge from the American West but with a comfortable style that's pure Kentucky.

Shuffett will also visit the Hopewell Museum in Bourbon County.

Kentucky Life is a KET production.

Breds blank Nicholas County Monday, Bracken Tuesday

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

The Harrison County Thorobreds continued to play well following the spring break trip as they defeated Nicholas County 3-0 Monday night in Carlisle and Bracken County 8-0 Tuesday on the Hilltop.

The Nicholas County game featured two of the better hurlers in the region as juniors J.D. Wagoner for Nicholas County and Jordan Martin for Harrison County hooked up in a pitchers' duel.

Neither team scored until the top of the fourth though the Thorobreds threatened in the top half of the first.

Xavier Carter opened the game with a walk and advanced to third as both Hunter Hill and Martin were hit by pitches. Unfortunately for the Breds, Wagoner struck out the next two batters and got a fly to center to end the inning.

In the fourth, Brandon Kendall started the inning with a single, advanced to second on a ground out and scored the first run on senior Paul Jones' double.

Zach Royce reached on an error and advanced around to score on two more Nicholas County miscues.

Jones also scored on an error, which made the score 3-0 after the top of the fourth. That was how the game ended as Martin withstood a last inning rally by the Bluejackets to maintain the shutout and the victory for Harrison County.

The Nicholas County squad was limited to just four hits with one base on balls and one hit batsman by Martin.

The steady junior hurler fanned nine Bluejackets for the victory.

Nicholas Coach Travis Sims was pleased with Wagoner's effort as he limited the Breds to only five hits while striking out eight, walking one and hitting two batters.

The fourth inning where the Bluejackets committed all three of their errors did the home team in for this contest.

Kendall was the only Thorobred with two hits as he had a single and a double. Paul Jones and Justin Nutter each drove in a run.

The win gave Harrison County a season record of 9-4 record while Nicholas County fell to 3-7-1.

Tuesday's game saw the Thorobreds find their bats and start to ground out some runs and hits.

The 8-0 win over Bracken County gives the Breds a 10-4

Senior Paul Jones avoids the tag at home Tuesday as the Thorobreds returned home from South Carolina and routed Bracken County, 8-0.

Three to be honored Friday at Fence of Fame ceremony

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

This Friday night on the Hilltop, three of Harrison County's baseball finest will be honored with having their name added to the Harrison County Baseball Fence of Fame.

Mark Clifford, Lee Kendall and Kiley Vaughn will each become a member of the fence of honor.

"The Fence of Fame is our way of honoring former Breds baseball players and coaches for their outstanding contributions to the Breds baseball program," said head Thorobreds Coach Mac Whitaker.

Mark Clifford

Mark played for the Thorobreds during the 1972 through 1975 seasons. He was signed by the University of Kentucky and drafted by the San Francisco Giants.

His career batting average at HCHS was .434 with 10 home runs, 61 RBI's and 7 doubles. His career pitching record at Harrison County was a phenomenal 20-1 with 228 strikeouts in 141 innings.

Lee Kendall

Lee played for the Thorobreds from 1974 through 1977.

He signed with and had a very good career at the University of the Cumberland. While at Harrison County, Kendall batted .452 with 8 home runs, 82 RBI's and 24 doubles.

His overall pitching record was 14-6 with 130 strikeouts in 111 innings.

He is a former Harrison County head basketball coach and athletic director.

Kiley Vaughn

The only Harrison County player to play on three state champion teams, Vaughn was a Thorobred from 1993-1998. He signed and played three successful seasons with Eastern Kentucky University before finishing his senior year at Charleston College.

While at Eastern, he was All OVC in two of his three seasons. He played three seasons of professional baseball, two with the Rockford Riverhawks and one with the Richmond Roosters.

He was MVP of the KHSAA State Tournament in 1997 and was All Tournament in both 1997 and 1998.

The Harrison County Thorobreds record during Vaughn's seven-year career was 195-39.

Former Harrison County High School baseball coach Don Snopek will participate in the awards ceremony.

Another event for baseball fans to watch for on the Hilltop will be on Friday, May 4, when Snopek's first team will be honored in pre-game ceremonies.

The 1968 Breds will be feted before the 6:40 first pitch of the Pendleton County versus Harrison County match up. Also on that Friday night all baseball alumni are asked to come back and take batting practice from 5:30 to 6:30.

This event last year brought out many former players, many of whom could still hit the ball. All fans are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Fillies ease by Dunbar in eight innings, rout Lady Cats, 15-0 in doubleheader

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

Tuesday night was a Fillies doubleheader made possible by wet fields on Monday night in Falmouth.

Instead of playing the Lady Cats in Falmouth on that night the Pendleton County squad was the second half of a doubleheader Tuesday.

The first half of the doubleheader was a thriller as it went from a tie to a three-run deficit to a victory all in one inning.

The visiting Dunbar Lady Bulldogs scored in the top of the first on a one-out walk and an error to take a 1-0 lead.

The Fillies tied the score in the third when catcher Morgan Florence led off the inning with a double and came around to score on Ashley Coppage's RBI single.

Dunbar regained the lead in the fourth off starter Tracey Hicks as they got a lead-off double from left fielder Emily Bryant who came around and scored on a sacrifice and a passed ball.

The Fillies tied the game again in the top of the seventh when Hicks drew a walk, was sacrificed to second by Coppage and scored on a single by Jami Davis.

Dunbar roared back in the top of the eighth as catcher Stephanie Harvey started the stanza by being hit by a Hicks' pitch.

Kaylie Zander then doubled and Kaitlyn Elias singled to score Harvey.

Coach Christine Garnett brought in Davis to relieve Hicks. She induced Shelby Shanks to pop up to third for the first out before giving up a two-run-scoring double to Bryant.

Davis retired the next two batters but the Fillies trailed 5-2 going into the bottom of the extra stanza.

This was when the wheels fell off for the Lady Dogs as after one out, Emalee Little and Florence worked the count for walks and Hicks singled loading the bases.

Coppage walked to force in a run and make the score 5-3. Kecia Stephens singled in Florence cutting the lead to 5-4 still with one out. Kaiti Martin then hit a shot that was flubbed by the Dunbar shortstop which brought in another run tying the score 5-5.

The pitcher Davis then singled to right scoring Coppage to end the game.

The Fillies were led at the plate by Coppage who was three for three with a walk and a sacrifice. Florence, Stephens and Davis all added two hits each as the Fillies gathered 13 for the game.

Dunbar had seven hits, two each by Mary Martin, Zander and Bryant.

The win improves the Fillies to 7-4-1 for the season while Dunbar drops to a surprising 3-10.

The nightcap was a rout as the Fillies scored 15 runs on 15 hits to blitz Pendleton County 15-0 in four innings.

Stephens went the distance for Harrison County giving up two hits while walking only one and striking out eight Lady Cats.

Stephens was also the hitting leader as she was four for four scoring twice.

Hicks had three hits in four trips also scoring two runs. Twelve batters came to the plate in the fourth when the Fillies put the game on ice while only making one out in the inning.

Harrison County improved to 8-4-1 with a date at Walton Verona on Thursday and at Bishop Brossart on Monday. Pendleton County's record is 0-10 after the loss.

MIKE'S MINUTE

A visit with a wise person and Little League opens

A few weeks ago Becky Martin from the Democrat staff called to let me know that a lady wanted my phone number in order to call me about how much she "liked" my articles.

Becky, suspecting that maybe liked wasn't the right word, told the lady that she would give me the message.

I did return the call and believe it or not, she did like my columns.

She especially liked the ones about baseball, but in general, most of them. After discussing writing with my one admirer for a few minutes I asked if it would be all right if I would visit her sometime. You see, this lady is a former multiple horse farm owner where two Derby winners were raised and/or trained, the widow of a former player of Adolph Rupp's, and the great aunt of current Oakland Athletic Collin Cowgill. Cowgill, who played at the University of Kentucky, is a 26-year-old (on May 22) outfielder for the American League team.

Mrs. Mary Ann Davis, who is, let's say past 89 years old, is one of the most interesting people with whom I have ever spoken, and she lives right here in Cynthiana.

Some of the most amazing things about Mrs. Davis are how she survived a plane crash and was widowed early in life yet raised two grandchildren to be most admirable young men.

She has some wonderful stories to tell and the two hours that I spent there flew past while I listened.

Of course, I also talked some because I have to and because Mrs. Davis was also interested in me.

In some later article I will expand some more, but I feel that I need to talk with her some more and be certain that I have her permission.

Little League starts on Saturday with five games involving the 10 teams that make up the Cynthiana Little League.

The teams are the same as last year with a few of the sponsors still in place from the beginning.

All of the sponsors deserve credit for the expense and

Errors, walks lead to 8-7 loss for Breds in South Carolina wrap up

By MIKE ALDRIDGE, SPORTS WRITER

Harrison County won one game of three in the Hanahan Invitational against some stellar competition last week.

The finale on Wednesday came against James Island, S.C., which resulted in an 8-7 loss for the Thorobreds.

Junior Brandon Kendall pitched for Harrison County and was in control for the first two innings allowing only one hit and two base runners.

In the top of the third, Harrison County put together four hits, a sacrifice, a walk and a James Island error to plate four runs to take the lead.

The bottom of the inning started out harmlessly as the lead off grounded to third and the next batter struck out. However, with two outs, the next six batters reached on an error, walked or singled and James Island scored five unearned runs to take the lead.

The Breds came back in the fourth to retake the lead when Cody Honeycutt walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on an error at third on Kendall's ground ball. Kendall scored the Breds' sixth run on an RBI single by Jordan Martin.

James Island led off with another free pass to Ryan Beasenburg and he came around to score on a single and another Harrison County error.

Tyler Weekly then doubled and came around for the lead run on a sacrifice and a single by Josh Escoffier.

In the top of the sixth, the Thorobreds came back again to tie when Xavier Carter singled, was sacrificed to second by Kendall, advanced to third on Martin's ground out and scored on a wild pitch.

James Island won the game in the bottom of the seventh without making an out on a Christian Dorothy single, an error, a hit batsman, and an RBI single by Robert Polk.

The loss made Harrison County's season record 9-4 after the spring break tournament. Harrison County managed seven hits in the final game, three by junior Jordan Martin. Senior Paul Jones got two hits and drove in two runs. The Thorobreds struck out 10 times and drew four bases on balls.

record while the loss drops the Polar Bears to 9-6.

Three Harrison County pitchers limited the visiting Polar Bears to only two hits, while striking out eight and not walking anyone.

The Breds committed only one error so Bracken County had three total base runners.

Sophomore John King started the game and threw the first four innings striking out five and giving up the two hits. Jeffrey Faulconer and Jacob Honeycutt finished the job throwing hit-free ball and striking out three batters between them.

The Thorobreds scored twice in the bottom of the first inning on two singles and an error to take the lead early.

Nutter drove Carter in with the third run in the second inning with a double and the Breds put it away with three more in the third.

A Hunter Hill home run and back-to-back doubles by Kendall and Jones led to the run outbreak in the inning.

Carter had three of the Breds' 12 hits for the game while Jones and Cody Honeycutt each added two to the total.

The Thorobreds next face region rival George Rogers Clark at home on Thursday and come back the next night for the Fence of Fame Game where three former Harrison County stars will be added to the fence.

Bath County is the guest for the Friday night game.

Track teams finish sixth at Bryan Station meet

The Fillies and Thorobreds track teams finished sixth at the Bryan Station All Comers Track Meet last Wednesday in Lexington.

Spring break and illness hampered the squads greatly as both were a shadow of their former selves. Neither team won an event but Fillies hurdler Haley Carr did grab a second in the 100M hurdles. Taylor Fry continued to perform well as she was third in the 1600M run in 5:54.18. Carr was also fourth in the 300M hurdles and freshman Mia Lail was fourth in the 100M hurdles.

The 400M relay team of Jessica Alas, Sabreena Strickland, Lail and Kinsey Lesak was fifth as was the team of Alas, Carr, Strickland and Lesak in the 800M relay.

"On this bitterly cold day, with a squad not at full strength, we performed well," commented Coach Danny Simpson. "I especially was pleased with the relay teams' times."

Mason Ritchie and Todd Puckett each cleared 5 feet, 8 inches to take second in the high jump to lead the Thoroughbreds. Taylor Bolin in the pole vault and Mike Jones in the shot put picked up third place finishes for Harrison County as well. Joey Faulconer was fourth in the 1600M run with Grant Carr fifth, Elijah Gross was fourth in the triple jump and Dominic Walker continued his progress with a fourth place finish in the discus.

Normally a power in the relays, the Breds managed to only take a fifth place in the 800M relay with DeShon Talbott, Matt Carter, Brandon Clarke and Joe Korona combining for this event. Clarke passed up a vacation to Canada to stay and compete, but didn't have the full compliment of regulars to perform in the relay events with him.

The track team next takes the field at Scott County Tuesday afternoon at the Scott County All Comers followed by the Montgomery County Invitational Saturday in Mt. Sterling.

Little League scheduled to start this Saturday

The River Road Park will be the scene Saturday morning of opening day for Little League.

Weather permitting, the season will begin at 10 a.m. when the Elks face the Reds and Darrell Baxter's Auto System squad battle the Pirates.

At 12 p.m., the A's square off against the Rotary while KFC versus the Lions. The final game of the day is scheduled for 2 p.m. when Kiwanis plays the LEE team.

According to recreation director Rick Chasteen, the coach-pitch and tee ball leagues are scheduled to start on Monday, April 23.

A reminder that all sections of River Road Park are tobacco free, according to a mandate from the recreation board.

Middle School Colts finish fourth in Scott County meet

The Harrison County Middle School Colts were fourth of 10 teams in the Scott County All Comers last Thursday. Scott County Middle was the winner with Royal Springs second, Caudill Middle third and the Colts fourth.

The scoring for the first four squads was fairly close with the Colts only two and one half points out of third. Paris was fifth nearly 30 points behind Harrison County.

Jovon Williams was the sole first place winner for Harrison County as he dashed to victory in the 200M. Williams also brought home three second place finishes as he was runner up in the long jump and ran legs in both the 400M relay and the 800M relay.

Brock Jenkins also ran legs in the two second place relays and took second in the high jump with a 5-foot jump. The 400M relay team was made up of Maxx Warr, Williams, Jenkins and Davonte Kenney. The 800M relay team was Williams, Kenney, Jenkins and Keishon Tucker. Kenney finished third in the 200M dash and the 3200M relay team of Kyler Snapp, Austin Snapp, Will Marsh and Travis Fry also grabbed a third place finish.

"We are progressing nicely with little time to practice," coach Kim Jenkins said. "I'm sure with hard work we will continue to improve."

The next event for the HCMs squad is Saturday at the Harrison County Invitational.

Fillies finish road tip with loss, romp past Paris

By MIKE ALDRIDGE, SPORTS WRITER

The Harrison County Fillies lost a 2-1 contest at Todd County Monday coming home from the spring break tournament in Tennessee.

The Lady Rebels (5-15) scored a run in the first and second and held off the Fillies to win the closely played contest.

"Too many walks and errors," bemoaned Coach Christine Garnett as the Fillies hurlers gave up five free passes and hit one batter while the defense committed three errors behind them.

In the first inning with one out, Harrison County plated what was to be its only run on a walk to Morgan Grose, a sacrifice and a single by Kecia Stephens.

Todd County knotted

the game in the bottom of the inning when, after a ground out to short, the next two batters walked and the bases were loaded on an error. The next batter was hit by a pitch driving in the run tying the score.

After the Fillies went down in order in the second, Todd County again led off with a walk and scored following a single and an error to take the lead 2-1.

The Lady Rebels would get only one more hit in the game for the next five innings.

The Fillies threatened again in the fifth as they got a lead off single from Shelby Ishmael. Ishmael was sacrificed to second by Emalee Little and advanced to third on a single by Morgan Florence.

Grose grounded into a force out and Ashley Coppage grounded to third to end the threat.

The Fillies were not able to get another hit and the game ended with the score 2-1. The loss makes the Fillies record 5-4-1.

On Friday afternoon, the Fillies traveled to Paris to take on a better-than-average Paris Lady Hounds squad.

Youngster Jami Davis pitched a complete game giving up only two hits and one run. She struck out 11 Lady Hounds while walking only one.

The Fillies also committed only one error for the game, which is much more to Coach Garnett's liking.

"It was great to see Jami throwing strikes and the defense play solidly behind her," she noted.

Third baseman Coppage drove in five runs for the game with two home runs and a single in four official at bats.

Catcher Florence opened the game with a double and scored on Coppage's first round tripper to give the Fillies all of the runs they would need to win.

Overall the Fillies had ten hits, drew seven walks, and got on with two hit batsmen. The Lady Hounds pitching only struck out one Fillies batter for the game.

Stephens and Tracey Hicks each doubled in the game to add to the extra base total for the Fillies. The 9-1 win gives Harrison County a 6-4-1 record for the year while Paris stands at 4-9.

Cynthiana Sin The' Shaolin holds spring testing

Column

effort that they put behind as benefactors of the league. Some probably do more than others, but they all give time and money.

As I have been told, the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary are the original sponsors who are left along with the Elks.

I remember that Dairy Queen and Webber's were sponsors years ago and were more than likely among the ones who were in place at the start.

Auto Systems, KFC and LEE (Lucas Equine) are long time sponsors, but not among the originals.

When I was in Little League in Tell City all of the sponsors were banks, local factories or businesses.

My brothers and I, along with any cousins who we could get, played for the Tell City Chair Company team. The most famous alum of the TC Chair team, which my dad coached, was the late Tommy Kron of Rupp's Runtz fame. Other teams were GE, Citizens Bank, National Bank, Fisher's Furniture, Dauby's

Department Store, PN Hirsch, and Coca Cola.

If you look at the list of sponsors that are in the Cynthiana Little League only Auto Systems, LEE and KFC are businesses with the sponsors for the most part service organizations, such as the Lions.

I don't know if no one asks or if it is too expensive, but I find it somewhat amazing that none of the banks, insurance agencies or other businesses are Little League sponsors.

This is not to say that they are not sponsoring Tee Ball, Coach Pitch or Pig Tail softball, but it would appear to me that Little League is the higher profile of the leagues.

Anyway, this is not a criticism because we all know that businesses are hammered with sponsorships for the school teams or ads for programs or buy this and that, but I just find it a little odd that Little League is not on their radar.

Let's hope we have a fun-filled, safe and productive season at the tobacco-free River Road Park this summer.

CYNTHIANA SIN THE' KARATE SCHOOL TAI CHI TEST. Tai Chi students from the Cynthiana Sin The' Karate School recently tested for rank advancement. Tai Chi is part of the internal system taught at the Cynthiana school. Tai Chi is an excellent way to promote good health practice and exercise. It includes meditation along with movements that improve concentration, stretch the muscles and tendons, and improve joint movement. Pictured are: from left, Grand Master Sin Kwang The'-Shaolin Grand Master, Elder Master Bill Leonard-Lexington Sin The' Karate School; Nicolette Mallory, Dewey Stanley and Judy Coppage advanced from second Brown Sash to first Brown Sash; and Master Gordon Burkett-Head Instructor. Cynthiana Sin The' Karate School is located on Pike Street next to Harrison Deposit Bank.

ORDINANCE NO. 262, SERIES 2012

AN ORDINANCE OF HARRISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 255, SERIES 2011 AND RELATING TO THE REAPPORTIONMENT OF MAGISTERIAL DISTRICTS IN HARRISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

WHEREAS, the Harrison County Fiscal Court, pursuant to the provisions of KRS 67.045, has initiated reapportionment proceedings relating to certain precincts for the purpose of making the population of each magisterial district as nearly equal as is reasonably possible; and

WHEREAS, said Fiscal Court has now received the report of Sam Pierce, Ben Clifford and Ralph E. Coppage who, along with Harrison County Clerk Linda Furnish, where duly appointed as commissioners to determine the new boundary lines of the affected districts; and

WHEREAS, the Kentucky General Assembly in House Bill 302 has amended US Congressional Districts which will divide Harrison County in the 2012 legislative session; and

WHEREAS, the Harrison County reapportionment committee recommends that the previously ordained magisterial districts numbered 2, 3, 5 and 8 should be amended so that the precinct lines are consistent with the US Congressional lines;

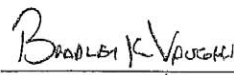

WHEREAS, the Harrison County Fiscal Court has reviewed such report, has considered comments received from members of the public and has found said report to be in compliance with statute and its adoption in the best interest of all the citizens of Harrison County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE FISCAL COURT OF THE COUNTY OF HARRISON, COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY:

That new boundary lines are, and they are hereby, established for Magisterial Districts No. 1; No. 2; No. 3; No. 4; No. 5; No. 6; No. 7; and No. 8 as set out in the Report of the above-named Commissioners and consistent with the maps and written boundary descriptions, attached hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.

This Ordinance shall become effective after its adoption and publication as provided by law.

ORDINANCE NO. 263, SERIES 2012

AN ORDINANCE APPROVING A ZONING MAP AMENDMENT FOR A 1.5+/- ACRE TRACT AT 974 US HWY 62 E, OWNED BY AVI BEAR HOLDINGS, LLC AND ORDERING THE ANNOTATION OF THE EXISTING A-1 AGRICULTURAL ONE CLASSIFICATION OF THE TRACT ON THE OFFICIAL ZONING MAP BE AMENDED TO REFLECT ZONING CLASSIFICATIONS OF THESE TRACTS TO B-3 HIGHWAY COMMERCIAL.

WHEREAS, Avi Bear Holdings, LLC by Avi Bear, President, has applied to the Cynthiana-Harrison County-Berry Joint Planning Commission for a zoning map amendment for a 1.5 +/- acre tract lying at 974 US Highway 62 E, Cynthiana, Harrison County, Kentucky as evidenced by Application No. 2012-01; and

WHEREAS, said Joint Planning Commission did, pursuant to KRS 100.211 and Section 1240 of the Cynthiana-Harrison County-Berry Zoning Ordinance, conduct a public hearing on said application, duly advertised as required by law, on February 20, 2012; and

WHEREAS, said Joint Planning Commission did submit Findings of the Planning Commission and Recommendations to the Harrison County Fiscal Court for property located at 974 US Highway 62 E, recommending the rezoning of said existing tracts from A-1 (Agriculture) to B-3 (Highway Commercial), with said recommendations being dated the 20th day of February, 2012; and

WHEREAS, the Harrison County Fiscal Court has reviewed the Findings, Conclusions, and the Recommendation of the Joint Planning Commission and heard arguments based on evidence presented to the Joint Planning Commission that said Application be approved; and

WHEREAS, the Harrison County Fiscal Court has found that the proposed Zoning Map Amendment meets some of the goals and objectives of the Comprehensive Plan, further, that based upon the small size of the property, it is unsuitable for any economically feasible agricultural use, the fact that the current commercial use has been in continuous existence since before the adoption of Zoning Regulations by Harrison County, Kentucky, and the proposed improvements to be made upon adoption of the Zoning Map Amendment will further benefit the welfare of the citizens of Harrison County, it is hereby FOUND that the existing zoning, A-1, which is the only zoning this property has had, is inappropriate, and that the proposed zoning classification of Highway Commercial B-3, is appropriate; and

WHEREAS, the Harrison County Fiscal Court has reviewed the Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations of the Joint Planning Commission and is otherwise sufficiently advised and is desirous of granting the requested zone change;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE FISCAL COURT OF HARRISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. That the application of Avi Bear Holdings, LLC, by Avi Bear, President, to the Harrison Fiscal Court for zoning map amendment dated the 20th day of February, 2012, is hereby accepted, approved and adopted by the Harrison County Fiscal Court.

SECTION 2. That said property is hereby rezoned from A-1 (Agricultural-One) to B-3 (Highway Commercial), and that said zoning notation shall be annotated on the official zoning map, said properties being more particularly described as follows:

Tract 1:

BEING LOT #3 of the Pepper Subdivision located on U.S. Hwy. #62 as shown on plat of same recorded in Deed Book 135, Page 572 and subject to the easements set out thereon to which reference is made for a more particular description.

Tract 2:

BEING Lot #4 of the Pepper Subdivision located on U.S. Hwy. #62 as shown on plat of same recorded in Deed Book 135, Page 572 and subject to the easements set out thereon to which reference is made for a more particular description.

Tract 3:

BEING Lot #5 of the Pepper Subdivision located on U.S. Hwy. #62 as shown on plat of same recorded in Deed Book 135, Page 572 and subject to the easements set out thereon to which reference is made for a more particular description.

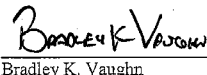

Being the same property conveyed to Bear Holdings, LLC by Avi Bear and Karen Bear, his wife, by deed dated July 15, 2004 and recorded in Deed Book 277, Page 231 and recorded in the Harrison County Clerk's Office.

All references are to the Harrison County Court Clerk's Office.

SECTION 3. That a certified copy of this Ordinance be delivered to the Harrison County Court Clerk.

SECTION 4. This Ordinance shall become effective immediately upon its adoption and publication as required by law.

TERMS:

The property shall be sold upon the following terms and conditions:

- (1) The property shall be sold free and clear of all liens and claims of the parties to this action;
- (2) The purchaser shall be required to pay the sum of 20% of the purchase price on the day of sale to apply on the purchase price;
- (3) The balance of the purchase price shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after the day of sale;
- (4) The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond with good and sufficient surety thereon as approved by the Commissioner to secure the unpaid portion of the purchase price, the bond to bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the day of sale until paid, the bond to have the same force and effect as a judgment and shall remain a lien on the property as additional security until the purchase price is paid in full;
- (5) The purchaser shall obtain possession of the property upon confirmation of the sale by the Court and payment of the purchase price in full;
- (6) All ad valorem taxes on the property for calendar year 2012 and all subsequent years shall be assumed and paid by the purchaser.
- (7) The property shall be sold subject to any assessment for public improvements levied against the property and subject to all rules and regulations enforced by the Cynthiana-Harrison County-Berry Joint Planning and Zoning Commission, all applicable health and safety regulations, all restrictions and easements thereon appearing of record in the Harrison County Court Clerk's Office, governmental laws and regulations affecting the property, and shall be subject to any unrecorded easements, discrepancies or conflicts in boundary lines, shortage in area and encroachments, if any there be, which an accurate and complete survey or an inspection of the property would disclose;
- (8) The purchaser shall bear the risk of loss on the improvements on the property and the risk of loss shall pass to the purchaser as of the day and time of sale;
- (9) The property shall be sold with any improvements thereon "as is".

All bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms.

*April is Child Abuse
Prevention
Month.
You can help.*

How can I recognize abuse?

- frequent bruises, cuts, burns or injuries • untreated illness or injury • sexual behavior beyond what is expected for a child's age
- behavioral extremes and fearfulness • withdrawal or infantile behavior

How can I help prevent abuse?

- Praise and encourage the children you know • Be a friend to a parent • Talk to your own children and listen seriously to what they say.
- Support or create a child abuse prevention program in your area.

If you see or suspect child abuse or neglect, call 1-800-4-A-Child or local law enforcement.

Volunteerism Fair. The Cynthiana Rotary Club, Harrison County Board of Education and Harrison County High School announce the 2012 Volunteerism Fair being held April 19 in the HCHS gym. The purpose of the event is to instill a volunteer mindset for the young people. During the fair students will visit the booths and given the opportunity to learn more about volunteering for local organizations. In 2013 organizations will submit the name of a deserving student to enter a contest to name the Cynthiana Rotary Club Service Above Self Award which will be given at the HCHS awards ceremony at the end of the 2013 school year. For more information contact Doug Price at dprice@kih.net.
